

Media Release

December 2nd, 2009

Guelph Police to play the Guelph Storm in Charity Hockey Game

The 9th Annual Cst. Jay Pirie Memorial Hockey Game is slated for Saturday January 16th, 2010 at the Sleeman Centre from 12 noon to 2 pm.

To date the event has raised $43,485 that has been donated to the Guelph –Wellington Special Olympics. “Every year we have generous support from the community and businesses that cover our operating costs so that every penny raised goes to the Guelph Wellington Special Olympics.

This year’s event will see several autographed items from Canadian hockey icon, Mr. Don Cherry offered as prizes. Mr. Cherry was very impressed with the efforts by the Guelph Police and Guelph Storm in support of the Guelph-Wellington Special Olympics and wanted to support the event with some autographed door prizes.

The game format is two 20 minute periods of straight time. After the game attendees will be invited to don their skates, enter the ice and get autographs while skating with the Storm and Guelph Police “No-stars” after the game.

Tickets can be purchased through Sgt Doug Pflug at the Guelph Police 519-824-1212 ext #253 or douglas.pflug@police.guelph.on.ca , the Guelph Storm Box office or at the door on game day. Tickets are $5.00 for general admission.

This year the Guelph Police and Guelph Storm hope to crest the 9 year $50,000 mark.

Join us in the worthwhile event in support of Special Olympics

Join the Guelph Police, NOW on Twitter, please visit:
<http://twitter.com/gpsmedia/guelph-police-media-news>